Appellant, a minor girl, sustained injuries in a motor vehicle accident on 11.7.1991. She claimed a compensation of Rs.50,000/- against respondents 1 and 2. The tribunal awarded a sum o Rs.10,000/- as compensation. Dissatisfied with the quantum of compensation awarded by the Tribunal, petitioner has filed this appeal.

2. Exhibit A6 is the copy of the wound certificate, which shows that the petitioner sustained T shaped lacerated wound on the right calf 10 cm. long muscle deep, incised wound on the leg (right) on the front 4 cms. long bone deep and abrasions on the face and lower part of the abdomen. Considering the injuries sustained and the period of treatment the petitioner undergone, I find that the award passed by the Tribunal is reasonable and it does not call for any interference. The appeal is without any merit and the same is only to be dismissed.

In the result, appeal is dismissed.
